Mr. Leroy Matkin of Bismarck came down Monday to place his daughter in State Hospital No. 4 for treatment. As she has been sick for several weeks her dementia is supposed to be the result of nervous weakness, and it is hoped a few weeks' treatment at the hospital will restore her.

Death of John N. Horn.

Mr. John N. Horn, an old and well known citizen of this county, died at his home at Esther on Monday afternoon, April 2, 1906, aged 69 years, two months and 26 days. He was a son of Thomas and Nancy (Hunt) Horn, and was born in St. Genevieve county January 7, 1837. He was reared on a farm, received his education in the common schools, and after he became of age worked several years at the Valle Forge Iron Works. At the breaking out of the civil war he enlisted in the Confederate Army, serving in the Second Missouri Cavalry under Captain Cousins. After the war he was employed by the Iron Mountain Company and for a number of years held a position in the company store at Iron Mountain. In 1878 he was elected County Collector, and served in that capacity three successive terms, retiring from office in January, 1895. At the time of his death he was in the employ of the Federal Lead Company.

Mr. Horn was married to Miss Belle McFarland, and to this union were born five children: Minnie E., now Mrs. Ogilvie of Charleston, Harry E., Maurice P., Gentry F. and Warren W. He was a devoted husband, an indulgent father, a steadfast friend and faithful in the discharge of his duties. His family have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrowful bereavement.

The funeral took place from the home at Esther, thence to the Odd Fellows cemetery at Farmington, where his body was laid at rest with the rites of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows by St. Francois Lodge No. 48, of which he has been a member for more than forty years.

Death of John W. Woodside.

Mr. John Woodside, one of Bonne Terre's old and most highly respected citizens, died very suddenly at his home in that place last Tuesday, April 3d, aged about 65 years. He had been in the employ of the St. Joseph Lead Company for many years, and last Monday morning went to work as usual in the company's mill, but was taken suddenly ill in the afternoon with some bowel trouble and had to go home. He grew rapidly worse and died the following day. Mr. Woodside was a good citizen and enjoyed in a high degree the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. The sympathy of many friends goes out to the family in their sorrowful bereavement.

Edward C. Barroll, the advertising writer, left Sunday morning for Kansas City, where he goes to work on an important advertising commission which he recently received. He will be gone a couple of weeks. This is quite a compliment to Mr. Barroll, as we understand it is a decided tribute to his ability as a writer of high-class advertising, to be called into consultation upon the campaign. This will occupy his attention in Kansas City. This is not surprising, however, because Mr. Barroll is rapidly forging to the front in his profession, and is becoming known as one of the most expert and prominent advertising writers in the West.

Mr. Frank Ney of near Elvins was in town Tuesday, and he remarked that he wished we would publish THE TIMES earlier in the week so that he could get it before Sunday. We just learned last week that our bundle of papers for Elvins did not reach there sometimes for two or three days after it is mailed here. It leaves here regularly at 10 o'clock every Friday morning and ought to be at Elvins by noon; but the mail clerk on the Illinois Southern probably does not open the sack between Esther and Elvins, and it goes on to St. Louis and then comes back at any old time. Postmaster Doughty has promised us to make up a special pouch for Elvins from this place, and we hope that will remedy the matter. It ought not to take mail matter a day or two to reach a town only eight or nine miles away and two railroads running through it.

THE TIMES wishes them all the happiness that their fondest dreams may anticipate.

Death of Captain Barrow.

Captain Frances Edward Barrow, father of Dr. E. B. Barrow of this place, died of heart failure at the Farmington Sanitarium on March 29th, 1906, aged eighty-one years and seven days. He was making his home here with his son, and had had one or two attacks of heart trouble a few days before his death, when Dr. Blanks, who was called in, advised that he be sent to the Sanitarium.

Captain Barrow was born in East New Market, Dorchester county, Md., March 22d, 1825. He left home when about fifteen years of age to make his own living, and in 1842 came to Missouri. That same year he went overland to California with other pioneer gold hunters. After remaining there several years he returned by ship, and joined his family, who in 1855 had removed to Eastern Kansas. At the beginning of the civil war the family sold their possessions in Kansas and removed over into Platt county. Captain Barrow enlisted in the Confederate Army, and was made captain of Co. A of the Sixteenth Missouri Infantry, serving throughout the war with bravery and distinction. His brother-in-law, Gen. L. M. Lewis, commanded the brigade to which his regiment belonged. After the war he located at Galveston, Texas, where he became cashier of the Strand Street Bank.

In September, 1870, he married Miss Elizabeth C. Peckman of Arcadia, Mo., daughter of the late Rev. J. C. Berryman, and she died on January 18, 1899. To them were born two children, one of whom died in infancy, and Dr. E. B. Barrow of this place.

After his marriage he resigned his position at Galveston, Texas, and went into the mercantile business at Ironton with Mr. Whitworth, where he remained five years, and then went to Dallas, Texas, where he became head of the money order department of the post office, which position he held for eight years.

Captain Barrow was a member of the M. E. Church, South, and lived a consistent member of that church. His body was taken to Arcadia for interment and laid to rest in the family cemetery.

Frank E. Clay of Randolph town ship is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Judge in the Second district. Mr. Clay is one of St. Francois county's best and most upright citizens, and enjoys the confidence of everybody who knows him. His fine business sense, integrity and good judgment peculiarly fit him for the office to which he aspires. He is a public spirited and progressive citizen, believes in good roads and if nominated and elected would carefully look after their improvement, as well as all other interests of the county. He solicits the favorable consideration and support of all Democrats in the Second district at the primary election, and if nominated and elected will try to repay them by a faithful and impartial discharge of the duties of the office.

F. E. Beard of Bismarck announces this week as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Collector. Mr. Beard is one of Bismarck's most substantial business men, whose standing in business circles is the best, and whose genial disposition and good feeling toward all have made him many friends. He is a Democrat right, and honorable and upright in all his dealings. His excellent business qualities fit him for the place, and if nominated he would be an active worker and a strong running mate on the ticket. He respectfully solicits the support and vote of all Democrats at the primary and will appreciate whatever they may do in his behalf.

No Rehearing for McCarver.

The Supreme Court on the 29th ult. overruled the motion for a rehearing in the case of O. P. McCarver, under sentence of death, and refused to disturb the former judgment of the court sentencing him to be hanged on April 19. His attorneys, and especially W. S. Anthony, have worked hard and faithfully to secure a reversal of the conviction. An effort is now being made to have the Governor commute the sentence to imprisonment in the penitentiary. What the result may be cannot be foretold.
